A Service of Commemoration

The Revd Philip Francis CF welcomes the people and introduces the service.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen

We meet in the name of Jesus Christ, who died and was raised to the glory of God the Father. Grace, mercy and peace be with you always.

All And also with you.

'I am the resurrection and the life,' says the Lord. 'Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.'

John 11.25,26

Today we come together to remember before God our brother and comrade Jason Mackie, to give thanks for his life and to comfort one another in our grief.

Opening Prayer

Father in heaven, we thank you because you made us in your own image and gave us gifts in body, mind and spirit.

We thank you now for Jason and what he meant to each of us. As we honour his memory, make us more aware that you are the one from whom comes every perfect gift, including the gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

Reading

John 15: 9-14

Memories of Mackie will now be shared by MNE Gray, Holt, Treadwell, Vowels and WO2 Tomlinson CGC ASG GSM.

The Prayers

Prayers will now be offered for the repose of the soul of Jason, giving thanks for his life and praying for his family and comrades who mourn his death, followed by the Lords Prayer.

Corps Prayer – OC ASG Maj Hopkins

O Eternal Lord God who through many generations has united and inspired the members of our Corps, grant your blessing, we beseech you, on Royal Marines serving all round the Globe. Bestow your crown of righteousness upon all our efforts and endeavours and may our laurels be those of gallantry and honour, loyalty and courage. We ask these things in the name of him whose courage never failed, our redeemer, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Conclusion

Neither death nor life can separate us from the love of God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Grant to us, Lord God, to trust you not for ourselves alone, but also for those whom we love and who are hidden from us by the shadow of death; that, as we believe your power to have raised our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead, so may we trust your love to give eternal life to Jason and to all who believe in him; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Blessing

Act of Remembrance

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old; Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn; at the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them.

Response:

We will remember them.

God of grace and glory,
We thank you for Jason,
Who was so near and dear to us,
And who has now been taken from us.

We thank you for the friendship he gave and for the strength and peace he brought.

We thank you for the love he offered and received while he was with us here on earth.

We pray that nothing good in his life will be lost,
But will be of benefit to the world;
That all that was important to him will be respected by those who follow;
and that everything in which he was great will continue to mean as much to us now that he is dead.

We ask that he may go on living in his family and his friends;
In their hearts and minds, in their courage and their consciences.

We ask you that we who were close to him may now,
because of his death,
Be even closer to each other,
And that we may,
In peace and friendship here on earth,
Always be deeply conscious of your promise to be Faithful to us in death.

We pray for ourselves,
Who are severely tested by this death,
that we do not try to minimize this loss,
or seek refuge from it in words alone, and also that we do not brood over it so that it overwhelms us and isolates us from others.

May God grant us courage and confidence in the new life of Christ.

We ask this in the name of the risen Lord.

Amen.

Introduction and Prayer

Hymn

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.

The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning,
That brightens up the sky.

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one.

The tall trees in the greenwood,
The meadows for our play,
The rushes by the water
To gather every day.

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell,
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.

Revelation 2 : 1-7

Hymn

Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea.

O Christ, whose voice the waters heard
And hushed their raging at thy word,
Who walkedst on the foaming deep,
And calm amid the storm didst sleep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea.

O Holy Spirit, who didst brood
Upon the waters dark and rude,
And bid their angry tumult cease,
And give, for wild confusion, peace:
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea.

O Trinity of love and power,
Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them wheresoe'er they go:
Thus evermore shall rise to thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

Sermon

Prayers

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love:
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

THE PRIME MINISTER

Dear Mr Mackie,

I was so sorry to hear of Jason's death in Afghanistan and I and Sarah want to pass on our condolences to you. From the tributes I have read, Jason was a hugely popular colleague with a great sense of fun and always ready to help others. I hope you will allow me to express my profound sense of gratitude for what Jason has achieved - not for his courage, professionalism and patriotism. He will never be forgotten way please if I can help in any
my deepest sympathies,
Celia Burn
