Hayden (https://www.shellbarn.co.uk/)

My Hayden Ancestors

My grandmother with my father probably taken in Wantage around 1910. Mary was born in Letcombe Regis on 27 July 1880 and died in the John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford on 6 February 1961. She was cremated at Headington, Oxford.

Henry Hayden was born in Hatford, Berkshire 16 July 1850, son of Shadrach Hayden and Jane Neale

3 July 1868 enlisted at Westminster in 8th Foot, 1st Regiment. Private 1984 aged 18,

He was examined on 18 October 1873 at Cawnpore when he was found to be suffering from a large hernia and unfit for further service. He had served 5 yrs 108 day of which 4 yrs 7 months had been spent in the East Indies. He was finally discharged at Netley on 23 June 1874,

On discharge he was 23 1/2 years old, 5ft 7in. Fresh complexion, blue eyes, brown hair.

At the time of Henry's enlistment the First Battalion of the 8th Foot wre stationed in Malta. On the 7th of May 1868 a notification had been received that it would proceed to India by the overland route, and would probably embark in October.

He married Rebecca Thorn, b Langford 25 July 1850, daughter of Charles Thorn (decd) and Ann Clapton, on 10 October 1874 at Hatford. Charles Thorn b Shrivenham, Berks 1808, son of William Thorn and Sarah Bastin, married Ann Clapton at Hampnett, Glos on 20 Jan 1832. Henry and Rebecca lived at Letcombe Regis where Henry was a groom and had three children, Henry, George and Mary Jane, before Rebecca died in 1883.

On 10th November 1883 Henry married his second cousin Mary Ann Varney at Letcombe Regis; by 1901 they were living in Broughton Gifford, Wiltshire. There were five more children - Mary Ellen, Emily Kate, Alfred Charles, Elsie Elizabeth and Florence. Mary Ann died in 1935 and Henry died, aged 85, in 1936.

Shadrach Hayden, b Lyford, Berkshire 1828, son of John Hayden and Mary Cox married Jane Neale, born 1831 daughter of William Neale and Elizabeth, at Hatford Nov 13th 1849. They were still in Hatford in 1871 but by 1881 Shadrach was a shepherd at Pusey Lodge Farm, Pusey. By 1891 they had made their final move across the Thames to Bampton, Oxfordshire. Jane was buried at Bampton on 14th May 1910. Shadrach was buried at Bampton on 20th December 1916.

Shepherd Shadrach Hayden was a traditional singer and was discovered by Cecil Sharp in 1909. He was also visited by the collector Alfred Williams. His songs appear in a number of compilations and have been recorded.

Perhaps the best known is his version of John Barleycorn as recorded by Traffic.

```
Francis COX
                         Sarah
        Jane NEALE (1831 - 1910)

 b. 1831, Hatford, Berks

        d. 11 May 1910, Bampton, Oxfordshire
                William NEALE (1800 - 1844)

 b. 1800, Hatford, Berks
 d. 1844, Hatford, Berks

                         William NEAL (~1761 - 1832)
                         b. abt 1761
                         d. 1832, Hatford, Berks
                         Mary ? (~1765 - 1826)
b. abt 1765
                         d. 1826, Hatford, Berks
                 Elizabeth ? (~1804 - 1833)
                b. abt 1804
                d. 1833, Hatford, Berks
Rebecca THORN (1850 - 1883)
b. 25 Jul 1850, Langford, Oxon
d. Mar 1883, Letcombe Regis, Berks
        Charles THORN (1808 - 1849)
        b. 1808, Shrivenham, Berks
        d. 27 Nov 1849, Langford, Oxon
m. 20 Jan 1832, Hampnett, Glos
                William THORN (~1776 - 1849)
                b. abt 1776
                d. 1849, Langford, Oxon
m. 13 Aug 1805, Shrivenham, Berks
                         Ralph THORN (~1741 - 1823)
                         b. abt 1741

 Dec 1823, Buckland, St Mary The Virgin

                         m. 4 Apr 1771, Swindon, Wilts
                         Abigail WHITE ( - 1819)
                         d. Jan 1819, Buckland, Berks
                 Sarah BASTIN (1781 - 1850)

 b. 1781, Shrivenham, Berks
 d. 1850, Langford, Oxon

                         William BASTIN (~1755 - 1839)
                         b. abt 1755
                         d. Nov 1839, Bourton, Berks
                         m. 25 Jul 1776, Shrivenham, Berks
                         Mary WILLS
        Ann CLAPTON (~1814 - 1873)
        b. abt 1814, Hampnett, Glos
d. Jun qtr 1873, Faringdon RD
```