Miss J. Grisold,
Archivist,
Oxfordshire Archives.

Your ref. D1/1(3) JG170

Dear Miss Grisold,

Thank you for your letter of the 2nd. June enclosing your official receipt for the various documents I handed to Dr. Simon Townley recently and which, at my request, he passed on to yourselves.

I should like it to be recorded however, that the "depositor" for whom I was acting as an agent, should more properly be named as Mrs. R. Hughes-Owens* acting, in turn on behalf of her late husband, Mr. Lloyd Hughes-Owens. I am sure that Mrs. Hughes-Owens has intended that, henceforth, the legal ownership of the documents should rest with yourselves.

Yours sincerely,

(J.G. Parrish)

Dear Mr Parrish,

I write to thank you for the deposit of Bampton documents as detailed in the receipt that I enclose. These documents were passed on to us by Simon Townley, assistant editor for the Victoria County History of Oxfordshire. I have assigned the documents the accession number 3651 and I would be obliged if you would quote this number in any future correspondence with us. I have accepted the items as a gift which means that the legal ownership rests with us. Should you wish to alter this to a deposit whereby the legal ownership rests with you please contact us. I thank you once again for the documents,

Yours sincerely,

Miss J. Grisold.
ARCHIVIST.
